Demonstration goods trains are highlighted in grey, and do not carry passengers.

Gala Day - what's on around the railway...

Danycoed Halt

- Recreated typical BR(W) halt, with pagoda shelter.
- Watch your locomotive run around it's train, ready for the return journey.

Llwyfan Cerrig

- Carriage & Wagon workshop open for viewing - CK 16232 will be visible 'in the shops', approaching the end of an overhaul.
- Travelling Post Office coach open for viewing.
- Visit the footplate of TVR No.28. The TVR No.28 group will be having a work party during the day - come and say 'hello'!
- Brakevan rides to Danycoed with D2178 - limited accommodation. First come, first served - no additional charge.

Bronwydd Arms

- Small road steam on display (full size and miniature), including unique Sentinel steam lorry 'Typhoo'.
- S&T Museum open, in the signalbox at the far end of the carpark.
- Cafe open all day (in the Victorian coach bodies, next to the signalbox).
- Plenty of movements to see during the day - it will be a busy station!
- 'Echoes of Graig Merthyr', from 5pm onwards - a series of photographic runpasts featuring 'Welsh Guardsman' on a goods train, recreating the last trains at Graig Merthyr (41 years to the day!). All welcome - no additional charge.

Abergwili Junction

- Our newest station! Accessible by rail only.

Where to eat and drink....

The Victorian Tearoom will be open at Bronwydd Arms station (next to the signalbox) - serving hot drinks, rolls and cakes throughout the day.

Toilets are available on all trains, and at both Bronwydd Arms and Llwyfan Cerrig stations.

A steam-hauled evening 'Curry Train' will depart at 1800 from Bronwydd Arms: curry and rice available for £5, on production of a valid travel ticket. No pre-booking necessary - pay on the day. The bar car will be open throughout the evening.
